What is the likelihood that my tumor will recur? What factors contribute towards that?

What happens if my tumor does recur? What symptoms should I be mindful of?

What are the side-effects of my short-term medication (chemotherapy, radiation)?

What are the side-effects of my long-term medication (steroids, seizure medications)?

Will my sense of taste return?

Visit www.BrainTumor.org/TheExperience for more information
Will my hair grow back?

---

Will I have long-term side-effects or permanent disability from my brain tumor or treatment? If so, can you help me create a management plan?

---

Do I need physical, speech or occupational therapy?

---

Do you think I will be able to go back to work? If so, when?

---

Will I need any accommodations to return to work?

---
Do you have any information for my employer/HR team that will help them support me at work?

If I can’t return to work, what do I need from you to apply for long-term disability?

Can I drive? Will I be able to eventually? What do I need to be cleared to drive again?

If I can’t return to driving, can you recommend any local transportation assistance programs?

Do you know of support groups in the area that I can attend?
Do you know of organizations in the area who can help me financially?

How often will I need MRI's?

How often should I plan to return for checkups?

What is the contact information for my long-term care team?

What should my care partners expect? Where can they go for support?